

of Australia Inc

The JEAA is a non-profit organization established with the following objectives and purposes: to raise the standard of teaching of journalism; to collect and disseminate information relevant to journalism education; to develop closer relations between mass communication, media and professional associations; to promote the views of the JEAA; to foster journalism research; and to promote freedom of expression and communication.

ABN 15 600 195 857

INCORPORATED IN S.A. A39791

JEAA President
 Dr Anne Dunn
 Media & Communication
 University of Sydney
 anne.dunn@usyd.edu.au
 JEAA Secretary
 Dr Angela Romano
 Journalism
 Qld Univ of Technology
 a.romano@qut.edu.au
 JEAA Treasurer
 Jolyon Sykes
 PO Box 5
 Thirroul NSW 2515
 jolyonsykes@bigpond.com

Application for 2009 membership

Fees: $120 per annum for full-time journalism academics, researchers and trainers and $60 for part-time journalism academics, part-time educators and full-time postgraduate students.

Discount: The JEAA offers a 10% discount for members who pay more than one year's membership at a time, as shown. Please indicate your preference.

Full-time	One year $120.00	Two years $216.00	Three years $324.00	Four years $432.00	Five years $540.00.
Part-time or Postgrad	One year $60.00	Two years $108.00	Three years $162.00	Four years $216.00	Five years $270.00.

Late fees: For those who renew their membership after 1 May, a $20 late fee will be imposed. People joining the JEAA for the first time will pay only $120, regardless of what time of the year they join.

Publications: JEAA membership includes a subscriptions to Australian Journalism Review, which is published twice a year, and to the annual Australian Journalism Monograph.

Institutional memberships: Institutions may take out memberships on behalf of nominated staff.

GST: JEAA Inc is exempt from registering for the Goods and Services Tax because its current annual turnover is under $50,000.00.

Payment: Either by cheque payable to Journalism Education Association of Australia Inc posted to JEAA Inc, P.O. Box 5, Thirroul NSW 2515
 Or by direct deposit to ANZ Bank, Myaree WA, BSB No. 016-314, Account No. 4979 19986 (please advise by e-mail to jolyonsykes@bigpond.com when a transfer is made).

Name and title:
Department, Faculty, etc
Institution:
Postal address:

Members subscribe to the objectives of the Association and have rights and responsibilities as set out in the Constitution. See <http://www.jea.org.au> (available soon).